

Once Upon a Time: Storytelling as a Therapeutic Intervention

DESCRIPTION:

Storytelling is often neglected or not recognized among healthcare professionals as a therapeutic intervention. Yet hearing and telling stories can be a powerful source of healing. Stories address life's fundamental questions. In this seminar we will tell stories. You will be invited-as you feel comfortable- to share your own stories. Topics include:

The Importance of Stories: Stories Heal: How Stories Heal: How Stories are Heard:The Trouble With Stories

Objectives:

1. Describe three roles the listener plays in order to hear the other's story.
2. Provide an understanding of stories heal.

Fee:

$40 Consortium Member

$80 Non-consortium Member
