

Addressing the Maternal Health Crisis

with Bruce McIntyre III

Join us for a virtual discussion with Bruce McIntyre III, who appeared in the documentary Aftershock, while he shares his story about navigating the healthcare system during the COVID-19 pandemic with his pregnant fiancée, and the events that led to her death during an emergency C-section. He will discuss his work to address the maternal health crisis and strategies to reduce health disparities in pregnant women.

Participation is free, register to receive link:
www.scahec.net/learn/sprout

