

Art of Leadership Part 1

Thursday December 11, 2024

DESCRIPTION

How new is the “study” and development of leadership? In truth, leadership has been pondered since ancient times by philosophers the likes of Cicero weighing in on the tenets of a leader. This workshop will define leadership and leadership traits as well as giving participants an opportunity to complete a Leadership Assessment to assist in identifying their own leadership strengths.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, participants should be able to :

- Discuss the History of leadership
- Define leadership
- Differentiate between leaders and managers
- Present trends in leadership
- Discuss characteristics and traits of leadership
- List chronic problems in organizations

INSTRUCTOR

Cookie Muscarella holds a Bachelor’s Degree and Master’s Degree in Social Work from the State University of New York at Buffalo. Throughout her career, she has worked with various populations in the role of therapist, supervisor, agency director, adjunct professor, presenter and consultant. Working with children, teens, families, women, veterans, active-duty military members, and the mentally ill have given her a broad range of exposure to both common and specific issues of these groups. Both teaching and consulting have provided her with the joy of sharing her personal experiences as continuing the process of life-long learning.
