

Moving from Talk to Action

with Results-Based Accountability™

Results-Based Accountability™ (RBA) is a disciplined way of thinking and acting to improve entrenched and complex social problems. It is a data-driven decision-making process to help communities and organizations get beyond talking about problems to solving them.

Program Objectives for Each Live Session

At the completion of this activity, participants will be able to:

- State the three guiding principles of the results-based accountability framework.
- Explain the collective impact model and make the connection of how it supports the RBA methodology.
- Demonstrate use of the RBA framework by outlining how their organizations, along with partner organizations, can enhance alignment.
- Discuss the value of producing a common language, a vital component of the RBA framework.
- Appraise results and indicators with a diverse group of partners.
- Develop performance measures for programs that answer the questions: How much did we do? How well did we do it? Is anyone better off?
- Demonstrate Turn The Curve Thinking using the five core questions.
